ISLAND STYLE:

FURNISH KITCHENS IN STYLE WITH NEWEST ISLAND DESIGNS FROM HABERSHAM

TOCCOA (September 2009) –Bringing hand-styled finishes together with casual European design lines, the newest furniture-style islands from Habersham can add warm, inviting looks to today's kitchen. Versatile enough to stand alone or to complement Habersham's custom cabinetry designs, these islands are available in a wide array of finish and style options. Among the newest designs include:

Habersham's Mountain Estates lifestyle creates a Grand American Casual sense of style for luxury retreats found in areas such as Highlands, NC and Sedona, AZ. This lifestyle includes warm, rustic, hand-rubbed finishes and grand scale, sturdy furniture and custom cabinetry designs with elegant accents as dramatic as the indoor and outdoor spaces surrounding them. Reflecting the traits of this lifestyle, the Mountain Estates Island offers a striking kitchen statement with its substantial legs and spacious work surface.

Capturing the rustic, warm and inviting spirit of the Italian countryside, this delightful island design brings simple, yet sturdy design lines together with time-worn, distressed finishes. Fabulous and functional, the Toscana island offers plenty of space on its work surface and room below for pots, pitchers and other accents.

As with all Habersham designs, each island is available in a wide array of hand-styled finish options that can complement and enhance any kitchen decor style. Among them, the Connoisseur finish represents the look of fine antique furniture as seen in the most stately homes. It is not merely aged and distressed, but carefully treated at each stage to have the hand-worn authentic color of a treasured antique. Striking colors and interesting textures describe Habersham's Studio finish. The result of a painstaking painting process, this finish brings a truly antique, yet versatile look to each piece. Available in a host of distinctive colors, each Studio finish is built onto the design by a gradual layering process using similar toned and textured paints. A variety of beautiful art finishes are also available.
